Claim (GMC) insurance policy. The premium for the GMC policy will be deducted from your CTC, and coverage under this policy will commence from your date of joining the Company. The coverage will cease on your last working day with the Company. All benefits are provided in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

Deductions

Your compensation will be subject to statutory deductions such as Provident Fund (PF), Employee State Insurance (ESI), and any other applicable regulations as per the law and government directives.

All salary components are subject to taxation, including Professional Tax (PT) and Income Tax (TDS), as per prevailing laws. It is your responsibility to ensure compliance with tax requirements, including filing personal tax returns. Taxes on all payments under this employment will be borne by you. Expatriates are responsible for tax liabilities for services rendered in India. The Company reserves the right to deduct amounts from your salary for reasons such as excess leave, loss of assets, notice pay, salary advances, or any dues owed to the Company. In cases of separation, all outstanding dues will be deducted during the full and final settlement process.

Background and Reference Check

The Company will conduct background verification through a third party, covering education, previous employment, criminal records, address, and resume claims. You must provide the required documents (Annexure III) to complete this process. Reference checks will also be conducted using at least two professional references. Failure to submit the necessary documents or clear the background verification may result in withdrawal of the employment offer, as per the verification team's recommendations and company policies.

Company Property

You are responsible for maintaining Company property entrusted to you during your employment in good condition. All such property must be returned to the Company at the time of separation. Failure to do so may result in the cost being recovered from you.

Prohibition of Corrupt Practices

As a Company employee, you must not accept money, gifts, rewards, or compensation for personal gain, nor place yourself under financial obligation to any person or client with whom you have official dealings.

Code of Conduct

All employees are expected to adhere to the company's policies, procedures, and professional standards, ensuring ethical behaviour, integrity, and compliance with applicable laws and regulations. Any violation may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment. For detailed guidelines, please refer to the Code of Conduct.

Resignation

During the period of your employment with the Company, in the event you wish to end your services with the Company, you may do so in writing to your Reporting Manager and by agreeing to serve 30 days' notice period as per the terms, which will come into effect on your Reporting Manager accepting your resignation. Till such time as the Company accepts your resignation, you will be deemed to be an employee of the Company and the terms and conditions of your employment will continue to bind you.

Termination of Employment

The Company may terminate your employment at its discretion, without providing a specific reason, by giving you a minimum of 30 days' written notice or by paying you the equivalent salary in lieu of notice. For this clause, salary refers to your basic salary.

The Company reserves the right to terminate your employment immediately, if your performance is not as per the expectations, without notice or severance pay, if it has reasonable grounds to believe that you have engaged in misconduct, negligence, or have violated any fundamental terms of your contract or caused damage to the Company.

Employer has the right to terminate the employment with immediate effect in case of breach of company policy or gross misconduct by you, OR if you are absent from work for 7 or more working days continuously without leave/authorization from the Employer and/or without sufficient reason, it will be presumed that you have voluntarily given up the employment in the company and your name shall be removed from the payrolls / other records of the company from the start date of your absence.

Confidential Information, in your possession or under your control relating to your employment or to clients' business affairs.

Termination for Breach of Code of Conduct

The Company may terminate this Agreement at any time for breach of Code of Conduct with immediate effect, without giving any notice of termination to you, and without paying you any severance. The Code of Conduct shall be deemed as having been breached by any or all the following:

- Conviction by, or entry of a plea of guilty in a court of competent and final jurisdiction for any crime involving moral turpitude or punishable by imprisonment.
- Commission of an act of fraud, whether prior to or after the date of employment.
- Continuing, repeated, or wilful failure or refusal to perform agreed duties in the Company.
- Gross negligence, insubordination, or violation of any duty of loyalty to the Company.
- Commission of any act that is detrimental to the Company's business or goodwill or in breach of the Company's ethical code of conduct.
- Violation of any other provision of this Agreement or Company policies.
- Providing false information on your application for employment or to the Company at any time during the hiring process.
- Failure to meet the expectations of the job as demonstrated by poor performance or absenteeism.
- Failure to appear for work for three (3) consecutive days without obtaining the Company's approval.

- Omission or failure to highlight any information relative to prior employment, which would form part of the evaluation by the Company, to confirm your employment here; and
- Failure in your medical examination and/or a positive finding for use or abuse of prohibited substances, including alcohol.

Separation

On resignation or termination of services, as the case may be, you will give up to the Company, before you are relieved, all assets, correspondence, specifications, formulae, books, documents, cost data, market data, literature, drawings, effects or records etc., belonging to the Company or the Company's Client or relating to its business and shall not make or retain any copies of these items. The Relieving Letter will be provided by the Company only on completion of the No Dues Process as well as Full & Final Settlement which would be processed anywhere between 45 to 90 days from the last payroll month you were on rolls of the Company.

NON-COMPETE & NON-SOLICITATION

You agree that during your services with the Company and continuing for a period of Twenty-four (24) months after termination of your services with the Company, you:

- Will not individually or on behalf of or in conjunction with any other person or entity (except on behalf of the Company), directly or indirectly, solicit, sell to, or perform similar services as provided by or available from the Company, for any clients of the Company.
- Will not seek and obtain employment, training, or contract for employment or seek to serve as you or otherwise to clients of the Company, customers, accounts or prospects, without the Company's written permission.
- Will not directly or indirectly solicit, hire, or cause others to solicit or hire any other employee of the Company. Unless pre-approved by the Company in writing, you will not, during the period of this assignment, prepare, compile, submit or publish any articles or contribute to any other publication or television serials/films / video presentations or assist anyone directly or indirectly in this regard.

Leave Policy Clause

you will be entitled to 1 Sick Leave (SL) per month as per the company's policy. And you will become eligible for Earned Leave (EL). The EL will be credited on the 1st of every month for the previous month's service. For detailed information, please refer to the full leave policy published on the GreytHR portal.

Corrupt Practices

Being an employee of the company, you will not borrow or accept any money, gift, reward, or compensation for your personal gains from or otherwise place yourself under pecuniary obligation to any person/client with whom you may be having official dealings.
